

Holiday festivities in the Mt. Washington Valley

NORTH CONWAY — Come to Schouler Park in North Conway Village, NH for an old-fashioned holiday event on Friday, Nov. 29. Watch the tree lighting ceremony and greet Santa Claus. Santa arrives at 5 p.m. for a reading of “’Twas the Night Before Christmas,” followed by the tree lighting.

Mt. Washington Valley Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Michelle Cruz stated, “We are happy that Santa and the tree lighting ceremony has returned to North Conway Village and is once again an annual event. Our Village looks magical under the Christmas lights with the vintage Conway Scenic Railroad station in the background and the array of charming shops and restaurants lining the streets. It’s a scene right out of a Norman Rockwell painting. We look forward to greeting visitors this holiday season.”

Not only is North Conway a destination for holiday cheer, it’s also a mecca for shopping with its many quaint independently owned shops and its tax-free outlet shopping. Holiday revelers can count on shopping fun starting in the fall and continuing up to the big day.

North Conway area shopping and holiday activities include:

Bring a Friend Shopping

Settlers Green has built a reputation for hosting one of the most exciting shopping events in New England. Bring A Friend happens every November right around Veterans Day. As it has grown, it has expanded from a single day event into a 10-day extravaganza. This year it takes place from Nov. 1-11.

The event brings thousands of shoppers, primarily women, to North Conway for a girls’ getaway with extended family and friends for a multi-day shopping experience. It is a tradition for many, with 80 percent of shoppers reporting they have attended the event multiple times since it began in 2001.

The core of activities from the original single day event remains the biggest draw. Referred to as the “Big Day,” it all kicks off with a free bag giveaway where 1,000 bags, stuffed with coupon books, exclusive offers, and gifts, are distributed to a line of eager shoppers at 8 a.m. Typically, hundreds of people are lined up by the time we start distributing the bags at 8 a.m. and the bags are usually gone within 30-60 minutes. One bag includes a $500 gift card for one lucky shopper to kick off their shopping spree. Stores have extended hours, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., and the day is filled with entertainment and festivities. The “Big Day” this year is Saturday, Nov. 9.

Festival of Trees
Friday, Nov. 24 - Sunday, Dec. 3

The Festival of Trees is an annual holiday event sponsored by the Carroll County Retired and Senior Volunteer Program (CCRSVP) that will be held again this year at Settlers Green! The event showcases the local organizations and businesses that call the Mount Washington Valley home by decorating beautiful holiday trees. One hundred percent of proceeds benefit CCRSVP including programs such as Meals On Wheels and Non-Emergency Medical Transportation.

In addition to viewing hours outlined below, Cocktail Hours with entertainment and refreshments will be held from 5-7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 24 and Friday, Dec. 1.

Inn to Inn Cookie Tour

Hosted by the Country Inns of the White Mountains, the 27th Annual Inn to Inn Cookie Tour takes place on Dec. 14-15. Cookie lovers can sample the very best in hand-baked treats from Tamworth to North Conway to Jackson. Holiday revelers can stay for the weekend at any of these lovely inns, or just tour for the day. Either way, this classic Christmas event will put everyone in the holiday mood with inspiration for their own decorations, baking and gifts. The inns hosting the merriment include The Farmstand B&B in Tamworth; Inn at Crystal Lake and Snowvillage Inn in Eaton; the Samuel O’Reilly House in North Conway; and in Jackson, the Inn at Ellis River.

Newcomers to the holiday fun include the Christmas Farm Inn in Jackson, Cranmore Mountain Lodge in North Conway and Purity Spring Resort in East Madison.

Book your Cookie Tour Package at www.countryinnsinthewhitmountains.com.

Ski with Santa Cranmore Mountain hosts a “Cocoa with Santa” event on Dec. 22. Take an after-hours chairlift ride to their summit Meister Hut for cookies, cocoa and a holiday story with Santa. This is a ticketed event going on sale in late November. Visit www.cranmore.com for details.
